Dear Sir / Madam

I confirm that is heading to the Solomon Islands as a volunteer and member of the registered charity, DAISI (Doctors Assisting in the Solomon Islands), and will be flying from Honiara to Hospital via Flysolomons airlines (Booking Reference Number:.....) on the following datecarrying with them much need donated medical supplies which will exceed their 23kg checked in baggage limit.

DAISI is a not-for-profit organisation aimed at providing medical and surgical assistance to people of the Solomon Islands. DAISI's purpose is to advance health, social and public welfare by providing free medical assistance and surgery to the people of the Solomon Islands, including the provision of medical supplies to peripheral hospitals in the Solomon Islands.

As such, I am making an application for special consideration by your airline on compassionate and humanitarian grounds to waive excess baggage fees of approximately 20kg for checked in baggage for this passenger on this trip.

Once you have had the opportunity to consider this request, would you please email your conclusion to staff@daisi.com.au?

Thank you again for your consideration and I look forward to your early response.

Yours Sincerely,

DAISI – Doctors Assisting In Solomon Islands
